

Powering the American Dream

Congratulations on Becoming a U.S. Citizen!

During the last decade, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) welcomed more than 7.4 million naturalized citizens into the fabric of our nation. This momentous occasion is the result of your hard work, determination, and contribution to our country.

As you enter this new phase in your American Journey, we hope that you consider the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) for your small business and entrepreneurial needs. Since 1953, SBA has been the nation's go-to resource and voice for small businesses, and provides free or low-cost counseling, capital, and contracting expertise for businesses.

Immigrants historically have turned to entrepreneurship as a way to build financial success for their families and communities. They are one of the largest business owner segments and contribute to the U.S. economy. They have high business formation rates, are very successful, hire employees, and export goods and services to other countries. If you have a passion for business ownership, SBA can help you become a part of this distinct entrepreneurial group.

Expand through Federal Contracting

The U.S. government buys all types of products and services and is required by law to provide opportunities for small businesses. If qualified, the 8(a) Business Development Program uses set-aside provisions for socially and economically disadvantaged communities—to help you gain access to federal and private contracting opportunities. www.sba.gov/8abd. So, federal contracting may be one tool to help your business grow.
