DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the National Benefits Center Director. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of the Philippines who is seeking to adjust her status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 13 of the Act of 1957 ("Section 13"), Pub. L. No. 85-316, 71 Stat. 642, as modified, 95 Stat. 1611, 8 U.S.C. § 1255b, as the immediate relative of an alien who performed diplomatic or semi-diplomatic duties under section 101(a)(15)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(A)(ii).

The director denied the Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, on May 7, 2014. The director determined that the applicant's parent had failed to establish that compelling reasons prevent her return to the Philippines. The director denied the applicant's adjustment application on the basis of her mother's ineligibility for benefits under Section 13. Both decisions were appealed.

In a separate decision, we dismissed the appeal of the applicant's parent concurring with the director's decision that the applicant had not demonstrated that compelling reasons preclude her return to the Philippines. As the applicant's eligibility for adjustment under Section 13 derives from the eligibility of her mother, the applicant is also ineligible for adjustment of status.

For the reasons discussed above, we find that the applicant is not eligible for adjustment under Section 13. Pursuant to section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that she is eligible for adjustment of status. The applicant has failed to meet that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. The application remains denied.
