FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The district director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because he falls within the purview of section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(II). The district director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), provides that aliens inadmissible and ineligible to receive visas and ineligible to be admitted to the United States include:

(A)(i) Any alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of --

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense) or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime, or

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 802).

The record reflects the following:

1. On October 18, 1971, in Passaic County, New Jersey, Case No. [REDACTED] the applicant was arrested and charged with Count 1, possession of controlled dangerous substance (heroin); and Count 2, possession of narcotic equipment. On April 19, 1972, the applicant entered a plea of guilty as to both Counts 1 and 2, he was found guilty as to both counts and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of 6 months, suspended, and he was placed on probation for a period of one year, and assessed a total of $110 in fine and costs.

2. On August 28, 1981, in Hialeah, Florida, Case No. [REDACTED] the applicant was arrested and charged with Count 1, armed robbery; Count 2, use of firearm during commission of a felony; Count 3, carrying concealed firearm; Count 4, aggravated battery; Count 5 grand theft; and Count 6, theft-auto tag. On July 2, 1982, the applicant entered a plea of guilty to the reduced charge of accessory-after the fact (robbery). He was found guilty of the reduced charge, adjudication of guilt was withheld, and he was placed on probation for a period of 2 years plus 60 days in jail.

Accessory after the fact is a crime involving moral turpitude where the principal was found guilty of a crime involving moral turpitude (paragraph 2 above). See Matter of Sanchez-Marin, 11 I&N Dec. 264, 267 (BIA 1965). Robbery is a crime involving moral turpitude. Matter of Martin, 18 I&N Dec. 226 (BIA 1982). The record of proceeding, however, does not contain any information regarding the indictment or conviction of the principal. Therefore, the finding of inadmissibility of the applicant pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act will not be addressed.

The applicant, however, is inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Act based on his convictions of possession of heroin and possession of drug paraphernalia (paragraph 1 above). There is no waiver available to an alien found inadmissible under this section except for a single offense of simple possession of thirty grams or less of marijuana. The applicant does not qualify under this exception.

The applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent residence pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966. The decision of the district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The district director's decision is affirmed.
