FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The district director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because he falls within the purview of sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) and 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II), of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) and 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(II). The district director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), provides that aliens inadmissible and ineligible to receive visas and ineligible to be admitted to the United States include:

(A)(i) Any alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of --

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense) or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime, or

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 802).

(C) Any alien who the consular officer or immigration officer knows or has reason to believe is or has been an illicit trafficker in any such controlled substance or is or has been a knowing assister, abettor, conspirator, or colluder with others in the illicit trafficking in any such controlled substance, is inadmissible.

The district director, in his decision, listed numerous arrests and/or convictions relating to the applicant. The list will not be repeated here. Only those convictions which render the applicant inadmissible to the United States, as cited above, are listed below:

1. On February 21, 1986, in the Circuit Court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Dade County, Florida, Case No. 82-425, the applicant was adjudged guilty of Count 1, kidnapping, and Count 2, robbery. He was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of 3 years as to each count, and each count to run concurrent with each other.

2. On February 28, 1992, in the Circuit Court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Dade County, Florida, Case No. 92-4865, the applicant was adjudged guilty of Count 1, unlawful possession of cannabis, and Count 2, unlawful sale or purchase of cannabis. He was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of 2 days as to each count, each count to run concurrent with each other.

Kidnapping is a crime involving moral turpitude. Matter of C-M-, 9 I&N Dec. 487 (BIA 1961); Matter of Nakoi, 14 I&N Dec. 208 (BIA 1972). Likewise, robbery is a crime involving moral turpitude. Matter of Martin, 18 I&N Dec. 226 (BIA 1982); Matter of Romandia-Herrerros, 11 I&N Dec. 772 (BIA 1966); Matter of Carballe, 19 I&N Dec. 357 (BIA 1986). The applicant is, therefore, inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act based on his convictions of crimes involving moral turpitude.

The applicant is also inadmissible to the United States pursuant to sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) and 212(a)(2)(C) of the Act based on his convictions of possession of cannabis and unlawful sale or purchase (trafficking) of cannabis. There is no waiver available to an alien found inadmissible under these sections except for a single offense of simple possession of thirty grams or less of marijuana. The applicant does not qualify under this exception.

The applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent resident pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966. The decision of the district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The district director's decision is affirmed.
