FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The district director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because he falls within the purview of sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) and 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) and 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(II). The district director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), provides that aliens inadmissible and ineligible to receive visas and ineligible to be admitted to the United States include:

(A)(i) Any alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of --

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense) or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime, or

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 802).

(C) Any alien who the consular officer or immigration officer knows or has reason to believe is or has been an illicit trafficker in any such controlled substance or is or has been a knowing assister, abettor, conspirator, or colluder with others in the illicit trafficking in any such controlled substance, is inadmissible.

In his decision, the district director listed the applicant's arrests and convictions from June 1981 to March 1990. That list will not be repeated here. The district director noted that although the applicant was requested in numerous occasions to furnish certified copies of the arrest reports and court dispositions of all his arrests, he failed to comply. The list and the conviction records, however, reflect: convicted on June 20, 1984 of aggravated assault; convicted on April 29, 1986 of burglary and grand theft; and convicted on September 15, 1989 of assault on a police officer and possession of cocaine with intent. Also arrests, for which no court disposition was furnished, for possession of cocaine and crack, shoplifting, breaking and entering, burglary, larceny and grand theft, auto burglary, battery, and theft.

Aggravated assault is a crime involving moral turpitude (CIMT). Matter of Baker, 15 I&N Dec. 50 (BIA 1974); Matter of Chavez-Calderon, 20 I&N Dec. 744 (BIA). Likewise, assault on a police officer is a CIMT. Matter of Danesh, 19 I&N Dec. 669, (BIA 1988). Additionally, burglary is a CIMT where the object of the unlawful entry or presence is to commit a CIMT. DeBernardo v. Rogers, 254 F.2d 81 (D.C. Cir. 1958); see also Matter of M-, 2 I&N Dec. 721 (BIA 1946). Grand theft is also a CIMT. Matter of Chen, 10 I&N Dec. 671 (BIA 1964); Matter of Scarpulla, 15 I&N Dec. 139 (BIA 1974). The applicant is, therefore, inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act.

The applicant is also inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Act based on his conviction of possession of cocaine with intent. There is no waiver available to an alien found inadmissible under this section except for a single offense of simple possession of thirty grams or less of marijuana. The applicant does not qualify under this exception.

The applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent residence pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966. The decision of the district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The district director's decision is affirmed.
