FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Colombia who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides, in pertinent part:

[T]he status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959 and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, may be adjusted by the Attorney General, in his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien makes an application for such adjustment, and the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence. The provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the spouse and child of any alien described in this subsection, regardless of their citizenship and place of birth, who are residing with such alien in the United States.

The district director determined that the applicant was not eligible for adjustment of status as the stepchild of a native or citizen of Cuba pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966, because she was over the age of 18 years at the time her mother married her Cuban spouse. The district director, therefore, denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

The record reflects that the applicant was born in Colombia on October 27, 1981. On April 7, 2001, the applicant's mother married [REDACTED] a native and citizen of Cuba and a lawful permanent resident of the United States, having adjusted his status under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act. Based on that marriage, on August 20, 2001, the applicant filed for adjustment of status under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act. The district director denied the application after determining that the applicant was not a "child" for the purposes of section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966, because she was over the age of 18 years at the time his mother married her Cuban spouse.

Pursuant to section 101(b) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1101(b), the term "child" means an unmarried person under 21 years of age. "Child" is also defined in section 101(b)(1)(B) of the Act to mean a stepchild, whether or not born out of wedlock, provided the child had not reached the age of 18 years at the time the marriage creating the status of stepchild occurred.

The record reflects that the applicant turned 18 years of age on October 27, 1999, more than one year before her mother married her Cuban spouse. The applicant, therefore, does not meet the definition of a "stepchild" as provided in section 101(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Therefore, the benefits of section 1 are not available to the applicant.

Accordingly, the applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent resident pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966. The decision of the district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The district director's decision is affirmed.
