FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The district director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because she falls within the purview of section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(II). The district director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), provides that aliens inadmissible and ineligible to receive visas and ineligible to be admitted to the United States include:

(A)(i) Any alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of --

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 802).

The record reflects that on August 5, 1983, in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, the applicant was arrested for (1) possession of a controlled substance/cannabis in excess of 20 grams, (2) possession of a controlled substance/methaqualone, and (3) possession of a controlled substance/acetaminophen. On August 25, 1983, in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, Broward County, Florida, Case No. [REDACTED] the applicant was indicted for Count 1, possession of cannabis, and Count 2, possession of codeine. On December 5, 1983, the applicant entered a plea of guilty to Count

1, she was found guilty as to Count 1, adjudication of guilt was withheld, she was placed on probation for a period of 3 years, and was ordered to pay $250 in court costs. Count 2 was dismissed.

The applicant is inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Act based on her conviction of possession of cannabis. While a waiver of grounds of inadmissibility under this section is available to an alien convicted of a single offense of simple possession of thirty grams or less of marijuana, the record in this case shows that during lawful execution of a narcotic-related search warrant, officers found in the applicant's bedroom 2 plastic bags containing cannabis "(packaged in oz. approximately 28 grm portions (2))," and 3 tablets found to be methaqualone; acetaminophen tablet was also found on the kitchen table. The applicant, therefore, does not qualify under this exception.

The applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent residence pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966. The decision of the district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The district director's decision is affirmed.
