Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The district director determined that the applicant failed to appear for a scheduled interview as had been requested. The district director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 245.6, each applicant for adjustment of status shall be interviewed by an immigration officer. This interview may be waived in the case of a child under the age of 14, when the applicant is clearly ineligible under section 245(c) of the Act, or when it is determined by the Service that an interview is unnecessary.

The district director concluded that the applicant failed to appear for a scheduled interview on August 27, 2001. The applicant did not request an alternate date nor offer any reason for not attending the scheduled interview. The district director denied the application for lack of prosecution and certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner. The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Pursuant to section 291 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he is eligible for adjustment of status. He has failed to meet that burden. Therefore, the decision of the district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The district director's decision is affirmed.
