Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Washington, D.C. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Peru who is seeking to adjust her status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 13 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) of 1957, Pub. L. No. 85-316, 71 Stat. 642, as modified, 95 Stat. 1611, as the dependent of an alien who performed diplomatic or semi-diplomatic duties under section 101(a)(15)(A)(i) of the Act.

The district director denied the application for adjustment of status after determining that the applicant's father was maintaining legal status at the time he submitted his application for adjustment of status.

On appeal, counsel contends that the district director erred in his decision because the applicant's father had resigned from his position at the Peruvian embassy as of August 1, 1992. He further asserts that the applicant was not provided with the evidence the director used in making his decision, nor was the applicant asked to provide evidence to corroborate the end of his employment. He also states that there is no evidence that the director held a verbatim record of the interview or that the verbatim record was transcribed by the director.

The Administrative Appeals Office reviewed all the materials contained in the applicant's father's record and determined that he was, in fact, still in valid status at the time he filed his application for adjustment of status under section 13 of the Act of September 11, 1957.

Matter of Aiyer, 18 I&N Dec. 98 (Reg. Comm. 1981), held that since the dependent of a principal alien derives benefits from the principal alien, an applicant for adjustment of status under section 13 of the Act of September 11, 1957 is ineligible for such benefits if he/she is the dependent of a principal alien ineligible for such benefits. The applicant is, therefore, ineligible for the benefits of section 13 of the Act since the principal alien has been found ineligible for these benefits. The appeal is, therefore, dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
