FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(1)(A), as an alien of extraordinary ability in the sciences. The director determined the petitioner had not established that he has earned sustained national or international acclaim.

On the Form I-290B Notice of Appeal, filed on June 18, 1999, counsel indicated that a brief would be forthcoming within thirty days. To date, nearly two years later, careful review of the record reveals no subsequent submission; all other documentation in the record predates the issuance of the notice of decision.

On the appeal form itself, counsel states that the petitioner "is an alien of extraordinary ability in the sciences" and that the petitioner will submit "additional information that was not readily available to the Service at the time of the adjudication of the petition." These are general statements which make no specific allegation of error. The bare assertion that the petitioner is eligible for the classification sought is not sufficient basis for a substantive appeal. The claim that undescribed further evidence is forthcoming does not require the Service to postpone indefinitely the adjudication of the appeal until such time as that evidence arrives.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as counsel has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
