INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment based visa petition¹ was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

According to 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(2)(i), an appeal must be filed with the office where the unfavorable decision was made within 30 days after service of the decision. 8 C.F.R. 103.5a(b) states that whenever a person is required to act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

The director issued his decision on January 30, 2002. While the petitioner was advised by the director to file any appeal with the Service Center, the petitioner submitted the appeal to this office, where it was received on April 26, 2002. This office forwarded the appeal to the Service Center where it was received on May 4, 2002. The appeal was therefore filed untimely.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B) states that an appeal that is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed; however, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen as described in 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(2) or a motion to reconsider as described in 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3), the appeal must be treated as a motion.

According to 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(2), a motion to reopen must state the new facts to be provided and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. According to 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3), a motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. According to 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4), a motion that does not meet the applicable requirements shall be dismissed. The petitioner's statement on appeal does not meet the requirements of either a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

¹ While the petitioner indicates that he is filing a relative petition, the Form I-140 petition is an employment based petition.
