FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Elizabeth Hayward
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(1)(A), as an alien of extraordinary ability in the arts. The director determined the petitioner had not established the sustained national or international acclaim necessary to qualify for classification as an alien of extraordinary ability.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part, “[a]n officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.”

On the Form I-290B Notice of Appeal, filed on October 29, 2001, counsel indicated that a brief would be forthcoming within thirty days. To date, over one year later, careful review of the record reveals no subsequent submission; all other documentation in the record predates the issuance of the notice of decision.

On the appeal form itself, counsel cites portions of the director’s notice of denial, and states that the petitioner “provided ample evidence to establish his claim” and that the director “should have considered the numerous letters provided as such evidence.” Counsel does not elaborate or provide specific arguments or evidence to overcome specific issues raised in the director’s notice. The assertion that the evidence is sufficient to establish eligibility is a general statement that makes no specific allegation of error and rebuts no specific finding by the director. The bare assertion that the director somehow erred in rendering the decision is not sufficient basis for a substantive appeal.

Inasmuch as counsel has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
