Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director of the Texas Service Center denied the immigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The petitioner is a Delaware corporation that seeks to employ the beneficiary as its division president. The petitioner, therefore, endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a multinational executive or manager pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(1)(C).

The director denied the petition because: (1) no qualifying relationship exists between the U.S. and foreign entities; and (2) a qualifying foreign entity did not employ the beneficiary in a managerial or executive capacity for at least one year in the three years immediately preceding the beneficiary's entry into the United States as a nonimmigrant.

Counsel submitted a timely Form I-290B on July 1, 2002, indicating that a separate brief and/or evidence would be submitted to the Administrative Appeals Office within 30 days. As of this date, however, the record does not contain a brief or any additional evidence. Therefore, the Administrative Appeals Office considers the record complete.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss an appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

On the Form I-290B, counsel states, "Incorrect interpretation of law." However, counsel fails to specify how the director made an erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact. As neither counsel nor the petitioner presents additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v). The burden of proof in this proceeding rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
