FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(2), as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree. The petitioner, at the time of filing, sought employment as a researcher at the University of Cincinnati (the petitioner has since left Ohio). The petitioner asserts that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer, and thus of a labor certification, is in the national interest of the United States. The director found that the petitioner qualifies for classification as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree, but that the petitioner had not established that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer would be in the national interest of the United States.

On appeal, counsel states that a brief is forthcoming. To date, however, the record contains no further submission and a decision shall be made based on the record as it now stands.

Review of Service records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the petitioner filed another Form I-140 petition under the higher classification, with receipt number LIN 98 160 52806. Service records further indicate that the second petition was approved on August 4, 1999.¹ The alien subsequently filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number LIN 00 030 55096, which was approved on June 4, 2001. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the alien's adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.

¹This petition was approved only weeks after the filing of the instant appeal, which may explain the lack of a subsequent appellate brief.
