FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

We note that the petitioner was formerly represented by counsel, but on appeal the petitioner specifically states he now represents himself.

The petitioner seeks classification pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(2), as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree. The petitioner asserts that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer, and thus of a labor certification, is in the national interest of the United States. The director found that the petitioner qualifies for classification as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree, but that the petitioner had not established that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer would be in the national interest of the United States.

Review of Service records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the petitioner filed two additional Form I-140 petitions seeking classification under sections 203(b)(1)(A) and 203(b)(2) of the Act, respectively, with receipt numbers SRC 00 109 50477 and SRC 00 101 53399. Service records further indicate that these petitions were approved on July 25, 2000 and March 25, 2000. The alien filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number WAC 00 194 52672, which was approved on August 14, 2002. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
