INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 CFR 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 CFR 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

for Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The Associate Commissioner, Examinations, dismissed a subsequent appeal. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed as moot.

The petitioner seeks classification pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(2), as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree. The petitioner asserts that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer, and thus of a labor certification, is in the national interest of the United States. The director found that the petitioner qualifies for classification as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree, but that the petitioner had not established that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer would be in the national interest of the United States. The Associate Commissioner found that the petitioner did not qualify for the classification sought as of the petition's filing date, and therefore cannot qualify for the waiver.

Review of Service records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the petitioner filed another Form I-140 petition seeking another classification, with receipt number EAC 99 074 52305. Service records further indicate that the second petition was approved on March 12, 1999. The alien subsequently filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number EAC 99 233 53044, and became a lawful permanent resident on September 5, 2002. Because the alien is already a lawful permanent resident, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed, based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
