FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The Associate Commissioner for Examinations dismissed a subsequent appeal. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(2), as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree. The petition is accompanied by an approved labor certification from the U.S. Department of Labor. The director found that the beneficiary lacks the experience required on the labor certification, and the Associate Commissioner concurred with this finding.

Review of Service records indicates that, subsequent to the filing of the instant petition, the alien (pursuant to a separate proceeding) filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust, which was approved on February 8, 2002. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot and would serve no discernible purpose.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed, based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
