FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(2), as an alien of exceptional ability in the arts. The petitioner asserts that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer, and thus of a labor certification, is in the national interest of the United States. The director found that the petitioner has not established eligibility as an alien of exceptional ability, or that an exemption from the requirement of a job offer would be in the national interest of the United States.

Review of Service records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the petitioner filed another Form I-140 petition seeking another classification, with receipt number WAC 98 217 52878. Service records further indicate that the second petition was approved on February 9, 2001 (following a denial and a sustained appeal). The alien subsequently entered the United States as a lawful permanent resident. Because the alien has obtained lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
