FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The director's decision to deny the petition was affirmed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reopen. The motion will be granted. The previous decision of the Associate Commissioner will be affirmed and the petition will be denied.

The petitioner is a computer services firm. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a programmer/analyst. As required by statute, the petition is accompanied by an individual labor certification approved by the Department of Labor. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary met the petitioner's qualifications for the position as stated in the labor certification as of the petition's filing date.

Section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(3)(A)(i), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable, at the time of petitioning for classification under this paragraph, of performing skilled labor (requiring at least two years training or experience), not of a temporary or seasonal nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States.

Section 203(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who hold baccalaureate degrees and who are members of the professions.

A labor certification is an integral part of this petition, but the issuance of a labor certification does not mandate the approval of the relating petition. To be eligible for approval, a beneficiary must have all the training, education, and experience specified on the labor certification as of the petition's filing date. Matter of Wing's Tea House, 16 I&N Dec. 158 (Act. Reg. Comm. 1977). Here, the petition's filing date is June 15, 1999.

The Application for Alien Employment Certification (Form ETA 750) indicated that the position of programmer/analyst required a Bachelor's degree in management information systems.

The director denied the petition noting that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had the requisite Bachelor's degree.

On motion, counsel submits a copy of a receipt from Airborne Express and states "[i]n fact a brief was transmitted to you on March 7, 2001, well within the 30 day time limit. Enclosed is a copy of the brief, our transmittal letter and the receipt from Airborne Express."

While the record contains the receipt from Airborne Express, dated March 3, 2001, no additional evidence, including the aforementioned brief, has been received.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The Associate Commissioner's decision of July 25, 2001 is affirmed. The petition is denied.
