Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based preference visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a textile printing company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a printing machine operator/textiles. As required by statute, the petition is accompanied by an individual labor certification approved by the Department of Labor. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had the requisite experience as of the petition's filing date.

On appeal, the petitioner provides a statement and indicates that a brief will be submitted within thirty days. Subsequent to the appeal, the petitioner requested two additional extensions to provide a brief and additional evidence. To date, however, no further documentation has been received. Therefore, a decision will be made based on the record as it is presently constituted.

Section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(3)(A)(i), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable, at the time of petitioning for classification under this paragraph, of performing skilled labor (requiring at least two years training or experience), not of a temporary or seasonal nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States.

The issue to be considered in this proceeding is that to be eligible for approval, a beneficiary must have all the training, education, and experience specified on the labor certification as of the petition's filing date. Matter of Wing's Tea House, 16 I&N Dec. 158 (Act. Reg. Comm. 1977). Here, the petition's filing date is December 16, 1996.

The Application for Alien Employment Certification (Form ETA 750) indicated that in order to perform the duties of the position, the beneficiary must possess two years of experience in the job offered.

The director determined that the petitioner had not shown that the beneficiary possessed the requisite experience in the job offered. The director noted that:

The petitioner submitted as evidence a letter from [REDACTED] stating "that [REDACTED] worked for the [REDACTED] from 04-93 to 02-94." This statement signifies a period of only 10 months and does not satisfy the requirements of the ETA 750.

On appeal, counsel merely states that "[t]he beneficiary possesses the minimum requirements as listed on the Form ETA 7-50, Part A, Item 14."

No evidence of the beneficiary's experience has been submitted. Therefore, the petitioner has not overcome the director's objections and the petition may not be approved.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
