FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a teaching, healthcare, and research hospital. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a registered nurse. The petitioner asserts that the beneficiary qualifies for blanket labor certification pursuant to 20 C.F.R. 656.10, Schedule A, Group I. The director determined that the notice of filing the Application for Alien Certification was not provided to the bargaining representative or the employer's employees as prescribed in 20 C.F.R. 656.20(g)(3).

On appeal, counsel submits additional documentation.

Section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(3), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable, at the time of petitioning for classification under this paragraph, of performing skilled labor, not of a temporary or seasonal nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States. This section also provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who hold baccalaureate degrees and are members of the professions.

In this case, the petitioner has filed an Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker (Form I-140) for classification under section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act as a registered nurse. Aliens who will be employed as professional nurses are listed on Schedule A. Schedule A is the list of occupations set forth at 20 C.F.R. 656.10 with respect to which the Director of the United States Employment Service has determined that there are not sufficient United States workers who are able, willing, qualified and available, and that the employment of aliens in such occupations will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of United States workers similarly employed.

20 C.F.R. 656.22 provides in pertinent part that an employer shall apply for a labor certification for a Schedule A occupation by filing an Application for Alien Employment Certification (Form ETA 750 at Part A) in duplicate with the appropriate Immigration and Naturalization Service office. The Application for Alien Employment Certification shall include:

1. Evidence of prearranged employment for the alien beneficiary by having an employer complete and sign the job offer description portion of the application form.
2. Evidence that notice of filing the Application for Alien Employment Certification was provided to the bargaining representative or the employer's employees as prescribed in 20 C.F.R. 656.20(g) (3).

In this case, Form I-140 was filed on October 18, 1999 and did not include the evidence described in sub-paragraph 2 above. On July 24, 2000, the director requested that the petitioner submit a copy of the letter from the employer to the bargaining representative or a copy of the job offer notice that was posted at the facility or employment location. The petitioner failed to respond.

The director denied the application based on the petitioner's failure to provide acceptable evidence that the position had been posted in accordance with 20 C.F.R. 656.20(g) (3).

On appeal, counsel submits a copy of the job offer notice. The notice, however, was not posted until May 23, 2001, after the petition had already been denied.

8 C.F.R. 103.2(b) (12) states, in pertinent part:

An application or petition shall be denied where evidence submitted in response to a request for initial evidence does not establish filing eligibility at the time the application or petition was filed.

(Emphasis supplied). The regulations require that the notice be posted for at least ten consecutive days and evidence of such posting be submitted with the Application for Alien Employment Certification. As the job offer notice was posted subsequent to the filing of the Application for Alien Employment Certification and Form I-140, the petitioner has not complied with the instructions stipulated in the regulations. Consequently, the petition may not be approved.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
