Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a manufacturer of internetworking systems. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a customer support engineer. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary has the requisite bachelor's degree specified on the Form ETA 750 Labor Certification.

Counsel submitted a Form I-290B appeal in this matter. In the section reserved for the basis of the appeal, counsel inserted, "We are in the process of gathering additional information from the Petitioner so that we may adequately respond to the appeal." Neither the petitioner nor anyone acting on its behalf has submitted any further information, argument or documentation.

Counsel's statement on appeal contains no specific assignment of error. Alleging that the director erred in some unspecified way is an insufficient basis for an appeal.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal and the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
