Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, revoked approval of the preference visa petition that is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is a photography studio. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a photographic technician. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition.

Counsel submitted a Form I-290B appeal in this matter. In the section reserved for the basis of the appeal, counsel inserted, inter alia, "Petitioner had the ability to pay the proffered wage at the time of filing." Counsel also stated that additional evidence would be submitted in support of the proposition that the petitioner had the ability to pay the proffered wage. No new evidence accompanied the appeal. Although more than a year has passed, no additional information, argument, or documentation has been received from the petitioner or from counsel to date.

Counsel's statement on appeal contains no specific assignment of error. Alleging that the director erred in some unspecified way is an insufficient basis for an appeal.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal and the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
