DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a nursing home. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a registered nurse. The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary as an alien worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3), as a skilled worker or professional. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition and denied the petition on August 23, 1999. Counsel filed an appeal from the director's decision on September 17, 1999.

Review of Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the alien became a permanent resident on April 30, 2004. Because the alien is now a permanent resident, further pursuit of the matter at hand is unwarranted as it is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the alien's status as a lawful permanent resident.
