INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.7.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as improperly filed.

The petitioner is a custom Plexiglas and acrylic fabrication firm. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a display maker. As required by statute, a Form ETA 750, Application for Alien Employment Certification, approved by the Department of Labor, accompanies the petition. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary met the minimum requirements for the position as certified on the ETA 750.

The beneficiary of the petition filed the appeal. Only a person with standing can file an appeal of an unfavorable decision. This does not include the beneficiary of a visa petition. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii).

An appeal filed by a person not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such cases, any filing fee CIS has accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v).

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as improperly filed.
