Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is a medical clinic. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a bilingual community health educator. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition.

The petitioner submitted a Form I-290B appeal in this matter. In the section reserved for the basis of the appeal, the petitioner inserted, "We are in receipt of additional evidence and information which will be submitted within 30 days regarding this appeal." The petitioner submitted no other evidence or argument with the appeal. Although almost a year has passed, no further information, argument, or documentation has been submitted.

The petitioner's statement on appeal contains no specific assignment of error.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal and the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
