IN RE:

Petitioner:

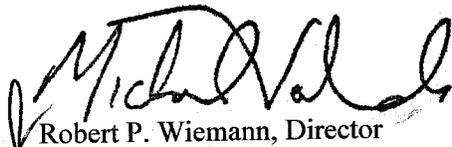

Beneficiary:

PETITION: Immigrant petition for Alien Worker as a Skilled Worker or Professional pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a skilled worker. The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to demonstrate a continuing ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date and because the petitioner failed to establish that the beneficiary is qualified for the proffered position.

On appeal, counsel merely stated that "the [petitioner] did not understand the requirements of the previous [request for evidence] and was not properly counseled on how to respond. The [petitioner] had all of the evidence required at the time and is recollecting that evidence at this time. All evidence will be submitted shortly," with an indication that he would submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within 30 days.

Counsel dated the appeal July 23, 2003. As of this date, more than 18 months later, the AAO has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
