IN RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiary:

PETITION: Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker as a Skilled Worker or Professional Pursuant to Section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was initially approved by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. On further review of the record, the director determined that the beneficiary was not eligible for the benefit sought. The director served the petitioner with notice of intent to revoke the approval of the preference visa petition, together with his reasons therefore. The director subsequently revoked approval of the petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The petitioner is an Indian restaurant and banquet hall. It sought to permanently employ the beneficiary in the United States as an Indian specialty cook. As required by statute, the petition was accompanied by an individual labor certification approved by the Department of Labor. The director determined that the petitioner had failed to establish that it had the continuing financial ability to pay the proffered wage and denied the petition accordingly.

The record indicates that the Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker (I-140) was initially approved on March 1, 2002. The director subsequently concluded that the I-140 was approved in error and notified the petitioner of his intent to revoke the petition on August 14, 2003. The petitioner's response and subsequent submission of additional evidence failed to convince the director to revise his decision and the petition's approval was revoked on October 17, 2003, pursuant to section 205 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1155.

The petitioner filed an appeal. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 205.2(d) provides that a petitioner "may appeal the decision to revoke the approval within 15 days after the service of notice of the revocation." Three additional days are provided if the notification of revocation was mailed. If the last day of the designated period falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the period will run until the end of the next day, which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. See 8 C.F.R. § 1.1(h).

In this case, 18 days from the date of the director's decision to revoke the petition's approval fell on Sunday, November 4, 2003. The record shows that it was not received until November 17, 2003. Although the information contained on the cover page of the director's revocation decision erroneously stated the appellate time as a 30 day period, it remains the petitioner's burden to file a timely appeal. An untimely appeal shall be rejected as improperly filed. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1).

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the service center director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The director declined to treat the late appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

Accordingly, the petitioner's appeal is rejected as untimely filed.

ORDER: The petitioner's appeal is rejected.
