IN RE: Petitioner: [Redacted]
Beneficiary: [Redacted]

PETITION: Immigrant petition for Alien Worker as a Skilled Worker or Professional pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a multinational insurance company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a global sales and client services specialist. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary has the college degree required by the preference classification for which the certified Alien Employment Application accompanying the petition specified, and, the director denied the petition accordingly.

Counsel submitted a Form I-290B appeal in this matter on July 12, 2004. Subsequently, counsel by letter dated September 27, 2005, received by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) on September 29, 2005, requested that the appeal in this matter be withdrawn.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
