DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a nursing registry company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a registered nurse. The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary as an alien worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3), as a professional. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it posted its notice of filing of the Application for Alien Employment Certification in compliance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.20 (g)(1) and (g)(8) when the visa petition was filed with Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) on July 14, 2003 and denied the petition accordingly.

Review of CIS records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the alien filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number WAC 05 032 50330, which was approved on August 1, 2007. Because the beneficiary has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the alien's adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.
