FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The approved preference visa petition was revoked by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification as an alien entrepreneur pursuant to § 203(b)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(5). The director determined that the petitioner had not demonstrated that he had established new commercial enterprise or invested the required amount of lawfully obtained capital. The director further determined that the petitioner had failed to meet the employment-creation requirement.

On appeal, counsel stated that he would submit a brief and/or evidence to the Administrative Appeals Unit ("AAU") within 30 days.

Counsel dated the appeal August 3, 2000. As of this date, more than eight months later, the AAU has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial other than to assert the director illegally revoked the petition without first issuing a notice of intent to revoke, an assertion which is not supported by the record.¹ Counsel has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.

¹ The record contains a notice of intent to revoke dated January 5, 2000, to which the petitioner responded. The final revocation notice considered the petitioner's response.
