IN RE: Petitioner: [REDACTED]

PETITION: Petition for Immigrant Battered Spouse Pursuant to Section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(iii)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Maura Deadrick
for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks immigrant classification under section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(iii), as an alien subjected to battery or extreme cruelty by a United States citizen spouse. The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to establish that he entered into marriage with his former wife in good faith and that during their marriage, his former wife battered or subjected him to extreme cruelty.

On the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, the petitioner indicated that he would send a brief or evidence to the AAO within 30 days. The petitioner dated the appeal March 12, 2007. To date, over two months later, the AAO has received nothing further from the petitioner.

An appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v). On the Form I-290B, the petitioner stated no reason for the appeal. Consequently, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
