invasion of personal privacy.

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann
for Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. An appeal was rejected by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter is again before the Associate Commissioner on motion to reconsider. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a church. It seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the "Act"), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4), in order to employ him as a minister.

The Form I-360 petition for special immigrant classification was filed on March 10, 1998, and was denied on its merits in a decision dated July 24, 1998.

In a decision dated May 24, 2000, the Associate Commissioner determined that the appeal had been filed by the beneficiary and rejected the appeal due to the lack of standing of the beneficiary pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 103.3(2)(v).

Counsel for the petitioner now files a motion seeking reconsideration of the original denial of July 24, 1998. Additional evidence in support of the petition was furnished.

According to 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3), a motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4) further states that a motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed.

The thirty-day appeal period for the original denial of July 24, 1998 has lapsed. Counsel did not challenge the appellate decision of May 24, 2000 rejecting the appeal in his motion. As the motion does not meet applicable requirements of a motion to reconsider, it must be dismissed.

The petitioner is free to file a new petition without prejudice.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
