Cindy N. Gomez for
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the "Act"), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(4). The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had been affiliated with the same religious denomination as that of the petitioner for the two years immediately preceding the filing date of the petition. The director also determined that the petitioner had not established that he had been engaged continuously in a qualifying religious vocation or occupation for two full years immediately preceding the filing of the petition. Finally, the director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary has received a qualifying job offer.

On appeal, counsel indicates on the Form I-290B that additional evidence would be submitted within 30 days from the date the appeal was filed. To date, no brief or additional evidence has been received. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

On appeal, counsel states that the decision is against the great weight of the evidence and is contrary to law. However, counsel's statement, standing alone, cannot be considered as sufficient to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. As counsel has provided no additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proof remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. Here, that burden has not been met. In accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
