FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Myra L. Rosenberg
for Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. An appeal was summarily dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter is again before the Associate Commissioner on motion to reconsider. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a church that seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the "Act"), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4).

The director denied the petition on January 3, 2001. The petitioner, through counsel, timely filed a Form I-290B Notice of Appeal and indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted within thirty days.

The Associate Commissioner, by and through the Director, Administrative Appeals Office ("AAO"), summarily dismissed the appeal on October 11, 2001, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(3)(v), finding that a brief had never been received by the Service.

Counsel now files a motion to reconsider the appellate decision. Counsel submitted a brief and documentation addressing the original grounds for denial set forth in the January 3, 2001 decision. Counsel did not address the grounds on which the appeal was dismissed.

According to 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3), a motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. To prevail on a motion for reconsideration, the petitioner must establish that the prior decision rests on an incorrect application of law, so that the decision "was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision." 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3).

On motion, counsel has not addressed the procedural issue, that is, the failure to timely submit a brief to support the Form I-290B. Therefore, counsel has not established that the prior decision summarily dismissing the appeal was incorrect based on the record at the time the decision was issued. Accordingly, the motion must be dismissed.

The petitioner is free to file a new petition without prejudice.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
