INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (Bureau) where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.7.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be rejected as improperly filed.

The petitioner seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(4), in order to employ her as a missionary. The director denied the petition on multiple grounds in a decision dated June 8, 2002.

8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(3) states, in pertinent part, that:

. . . An applicant or petitioner may be represented by an attorney in the United States A beneficiary of a petition is not a recognized party in such a proceeding. . . .

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part, that:

. . . An appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. . . .

The record reflects that the appeal has been filed by the beneficiary, not by the petitioner or any entity with legal standing in the proceeding. Therefore, the appeal has not been properly filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as improperly filed.
