IN RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiary:

PETITION: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The director's decision will be withdrawn and the matter remanded for entry of a new decision.

The petitioner provides software development and consulting services. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a data warehouse developer. Accordingly the petitioner endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

On August 27, 2007, the director denied the petition, determining that the petitioner failed to establish that it qualified as a United States employer or agent.

The record includes: (1) the Form I-129 filed April 2, 2007 and supporting documents; (2) the director's June 12, 2007 request for further evidence (RFE); (3) the petitioner's August 7, 2007 response to the director's RFE; (4) the director's August 27, 2007 denial decision; and (5) the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion. The Form-290B indicates that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. The petitioner's September 25, 2007 letter appended to the Form I-290B also indicates that a brief would be submitted to the AAO in 30 days. The brief filed on October 30, 2007 is part of the record and has been considered.

The AAO has reviewed the record and finds the director erred when determining that the petitioner would not act as the beneficiary's employer. The evidence of record establishes that the petitioner will act as the beneficiary's employer in that it will hire, pay, fire, or otherwise control the work of the beneficiary.<sup>1</sup> See 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(4)(ii). In view of this evidence, the AAO finds that the petitioner will be the employer of the beneficiary and withdraws the director's decision to the contrary. The petition may not be approved, however, as the petition does not establish that the petitioner had employment available for the beneficiary when the petition was filed and that the beneficiary would be employed in a specialty occupation.

Although the petitioner will act as the beneficiary's employer, the evidence of record establishes that the petitioner is an employment contractor and that the petitioner will place the beneficiary at different work locations to perform services according to various agreements with third-party companies.<sup>2</sup> Pursuant to the language at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(2)(i)(B), employers must submit an itinerary with the dates and locations of employment in such situations. While the Aytes memorandum cited at footnote 1 broadly interprets the term "itinerary," it provides CIS the discretion to require that the petitioner submit the dates and locations of the proposed employment. As the evidence contained in the record at the time the petition was filed did not establish that the petitioner had three years of work for the beneficiary to perform, the director properly exercised her discretion to require an itinerary of employment.<sup>3</sup> As the petitioner has not submitted an itinerary, the petition may not be approved. In addition, the petitioner has not provided evidence showing where the beneficiary would ultimately work; thus, it is not possible to determine the validity of the Form ETA 9035E, Labor Condition Application (LCA) submitted with the petition. Further, the petitioner has not provided evidence of the actual duties comprising the beneficiary's services for the end user client or clients. Thus, the AAO is unable to determine whether the proffered position incorporates the theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge, and the attainment of a baccalaureate or higher degree, or its equivalent, in the specific specialty as the minimum for entry into the occupation as required by the Act. Accordingly, the petitioner has not established that the proffered position is a specialty occupation under any of the criteria at 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(A) or that the beneficiary would be coming temporarily to the United States to perform the duties of a specialty occupation pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 214.2(h)(1)(B)(ii)(I).

Upon review of the totality of the record, the record fails to reveal sufficient evidence that the offered position requires a bachelor's degree, or its equivalent, in a specific discipline, that the petitioner had employment available for the beneficiary when the petition was filed, and that the LCA is valid for the beneficiary's actual work location. As the director did not deny the petition based on these grounds, the petitioner has not had opportunity to address these deficiencies on appeal. Thus, the petition will be remanded and the director shall render a new decision based on the evidence of record as it relates to the regulatory requirements for eligibility. As always, the burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The director's August 27, 2007 decision is withdrawn. The petition is remanded to the director for entry of a new decision, which if adverse to the petitioner, is to be certified to the AAO for review.
