FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director and is now before the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, on certification. The director's decision will be affirmed.

The petitioner provides care and schooling for handicapped children. It seeks to employ the beneficiary for a three year period as a "Qualified Mental Retardation Professional (QMRP)."

On certification, counsel argues that the director's decision was founded upon an inaccurate or incomplete characterization of the petitioner's business and an erroneous characterization and classification of the offered position as a nursing position. Counsel states that the correct characterization and classification of the offered position is that of a human services manager. Counsel asserts that within the last two years, the director approved numerous H-1B petitions filed by the Center for identical QMRP positions and that the petitioner relied on the director's previous approvals.

Counsel also requests oral argument. Oral argument, however, is limited to cases where cause is shown. It must be shown a case involves unique facts or issues of law which cannot be adequately addressed in writing. In this case, no cause for oral argument is shown. Counsel's request for oral argument is, consequently, denied.

Counsel argues that this petition should be approved in view of the approval of other petitions in the past. This Service is not required to approve applications or petitions where eligibility has not been demonstrated. The cases cited by counsel have no precedential effect in this proceeding. See: 8 C.F.R. 103.3(c).

Section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b), provides, in part, for nonimmigrant classification to qualified aliens who are coming temporarily to the United States to perform services in a specialty occupation. Section 214(i)(1) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(i)(1), defines a "specialty occupation" as an occupation that requires theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge, and attainment of a bachelor's or higher degree in the specific specialty (or its equivalent) as a minimum for entry into the occupation in the United States.

Pursuant to section 214(i)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(i)(2), to qualify as an alien coming to perform services in a specialty occupation the beneficiary must hold full state licensure to practice in the occupation, if such licensure is required to practice in the occupation. In addition, the beneficiary must have completed the degree required for the occupation, or have experience in the specialty equivalent to the completion of such degree and recognition of expertise in the specialty through progressively responsible positions relating to the specialty.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(B), the petitioner shall submit the following with an H-1B petition involving a specialty occupation:

1. A certification from the Secretary of Labor that the petitioner has filed a labor condition application with the Secretary,
2. A statement that it will comply with the terms of the labor condition application for the duration of the alien's authorized period of stay, and
3. Evidence that the alien qualifies to perform services in the specialty occupation.

The petitioner has provided a certified labor condition application and a statement that it will comply with the terms of the labor condition application.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(C), to qualify to perform services in a specialty occupation, the alien must meet one of the following criteria:

1. Hold a United States baccalaureate or higher degree required by the specialty occupation from an accredited college or university;
2. Hold a foreign degree determined to be equivalent to a United States baccalaureate or higher degree required by the specialty occupation from an accredited college or university;
3. Hold an unrestricted State license, registration, or certification which authorizes him or her to fully practice the specialty occupation and be immediately engaged in that specialty in the state of intended employment; or
4. Have education, specialized training, and/or progressively responsible experience that is equivalent to completion of a United States baccalaureate or higher degree in the specialty occupation and have recognition of expertise in the specialty through progressively responsible positions directly related to the specialty.

The beneficiary holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from St. Jude College in the Philippines.

The term "specialty occupation" is defined at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(ii) as:

an occupation which requires theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge in fields of human endeavor including, but not limited to, architecture, engineering, mathematics, physical sciences, social sciences, medicine and health, education, business specialties, accounting, law, theology, and the arts, and which requires the attainment of a bachelor's degree or higher in a specific specialty, or its equivalent, as a minimum for entry into the occupation in the United States.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(A), to qualify as a specialty occupation, the position must meet one of the following criteria:

1. A baccalaureate or higher degree or its equivalent is normally the minimum requirement for entry into the particular position;
2. The degree requirement is common to the industry in parallel positions among similar organizations or, in the alternative, an employer may show that its particular position is so complex or unique that it can be performed only by an individual with a degree;
3. The employer normally requires a degree or its equivalent for the position; or
4. The nature of the specific duties is so specialized and complex that knowledge required to perform the duties is usually associated with the attainment of a baccalaureate or higher degree.

The duties and responsibilities of the offered position are described as:

To develop and implement a continuous active treatment program for each profoundly mentally and physically handicapped resident to enable each individual to function as independently as possible and prevent skill regression; to monitor and modify treatment programs as needed; and to share responsibility for 7 six to ten year olds with a mental age of from 6-9 months including establishing and implementing appropriate training goals and oversee patient safety and development.

The petitioner has failed to establish that any of the four factors enumerated above are present in this proceeding. The petitioner has not shown that it has, in the past, required the services of individuals with baccalaureate or higher degrees for the offered position. In addition, the petitioner has not shown that similar facilities require the services of such individuals in parallel positions.

Counsel has provided a letter from an Assistant Professor of Nursing who is of the opinion that a degree in nursing can be considered a degree in the broader area of human services. She explains that human services is a multi-disciplinary field encompassing a wide range of subjects in health care, public administration, personal counseling, social services, and related areas. One letter is insufficient to establish an industry standard.

In these proceedings, the duties of the position are dispositive and not the job title. The offered position appears to be that of a registered nurse. The Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook (Handbook), 2000-2001 edition, at pages 211-212 finds no requirement of a baccalaureate or higher degree in a specialized area for employment as a registered nurse. Some registered nurses hold baccalaureate degrees while others hold diplomas or associate (two-year) degrees. Additionally, the Handbook indicates that attempts to raise the educational requirements for a registered nursing license to a baccalaureate degree in nursing have not been successful. In view of the foregoing, it is concluded that the petitioner has not demonstrated that the offered position is a specialty occupation within the meaning of regulations.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The decision of the director is affirmed. The visa petition is denied.
