INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary as a manager for an unspecified period. The director determined that the petitioner had failed to submit the required approved labor condition application. The director also determined the petitioner had not established that the firm is a viable organization and that the offered position is a specialty occupation.

On appeal, the petitioner states that a brief and/or evidence will be forwarded within 30 days; however, as of this date, no additional evidence has been received for inclusion in the record.

The petitioner has not stated a basis for the appeal and no further evidence has been received on appeal. It is noted that the regulations at 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) provide for summary dismissal of an appeal when the appellant fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
