FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a custom metal fabrication shop which seeks to employ the beneficiary as an engineer/designer for an unspecified period. The director determined the petition could not be approved because the petitioner had not submitted an approved labor condition application.

On appeal, the petitioner submits a labor condition application. However, the application has not been certified by an authorized Department of Labor official. Regulations at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(i)(B)(1) provide that before filing a petition for H-1B classification in a specialty occupation, the petitioner shall obtain a certification from the Department of Labor that it has filed a labor condition application. Since this has not occurred, it is concluded that the petition may not be approved.

There is an additional reason that the visa petition may not be approved. Matter of Lee, 18 I&N Dec. 96 (Reg. Comm. 1981), found a beneficiary who has been offered a position for an indefinite period with no specified termination date has not been offered a temporary position and does not qualify for nonimmigrant classification pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i). The beneficiary has been offered a position for an indefinite period with no specified termination date. As such, he is ineligible for the nonimmigrant classification sought.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
