INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is seeks to employ the beneficiary as a store manager trainee for a two-year period. The director determined the petitioner had not established that the offered position is a specialty occupation.

On appeal, the petitioner explains that the firm wishes to employ the beneficiary as a field consultant and not as a store manager. The petitioner emphasizes the strength of the credentials of the beneficiary and submits a description of the duties of the field consultant position.

Based on the information provided by the petitioner on appeal, it is determined that there have been material changes in the terms and conditions of the beneficiary's employment with the firm. The petitioner explains on appeal that the beneficiary's employment would not be as a store manager but as a field consultant. Since the circumstances stated in the initial petition have changed significantly, a new petition reflecting the new facts may be presented to the director for consideration. Should the director deny the new petition, that decision could then be appealed to this jurisdiction. The Administrative Appeals Office does not make initial determinations on visa petitions.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
