INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner works in the electro mechanical device field. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a marketing research analyst for a period of three years. The director determined the petitioner had not established that the offered position is a specialty occupation or that the beneficiary qualifies to perform services in a specialty occupation.

On appeal, counsel states that additional information will be submitted to show that the position of market research analyst is a professional position as well as other relevant information regarding this case. More than 11 months have passed since counsel made this statement, and no new or additional evidence has been submitted into the record. Therefore the record is considered complete.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 103(a)(1)(v), an officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. The petitioner has not identified specifically any erroneous conclusions of law or statements of fact. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
