FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Northern Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiary as an early childhood teacher for a three-year period. The director determined the petition could not be approved because the petitioner had not submitted an approved labor condition application.

On appeal, counsel requests that the petitioner be allowed to continue its attempts to obtain the appropriate form from the Department of Labor (DOL) and be allowed to submit the certified form to the INS. Counsel submits an uncertified copy of a labor condition application that the petitioner received on February 17, 1999 from the DOL.

The petitioner was required by regulation to provide either an approved labor condition application from the DOL or certification that such application had been filed. Neither document was initially submitted.

The petitioner has provided an additional uncertified labor condition application. Regulations at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(i)(B)(i) provide that before filing a petition for H-1B classification in a specialty occupation, the petitioner shall obtain a certification from the DOL that it has filed a labor condition application. Since this has not occurred, the petition may not be approved.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act. 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
