FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for examinations. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reconsider. The motion will be granted and the previous decisions of the director and the Associate Commissioner will be affirmed.

The petitioner is responsible for providing entertainers to perform at various clubs, bars and restaurants. It seeks to employ the beneficiaries as singers for a period of one year. The Department of Labor determined that a temporary certification by the Secretary of Labor could not be made. The director determined a temporary need for the beneficiaries' services had not been established.

On motion, counsel reiterates her argument that the positions offered to the aliens as singers are temporary.

Section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii), defines an H-2B temporary worker as:

an alien...having a residence in a foreign country which he has no intention of abandoning, who is coming temporarily to the United States to perform other temporary service or labor if unemployed persons capable of performing such service or labor cannot be found in this country, but this clause shall not apply to graduates of medical schools coming to the United States to perform services as members of the medical profession....

Matter of Artee Corp., 18 I&N Dec. 366 (Comm. 1982), as codified in current regulations at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(ii), specified that the test for determining whether an alien is coming "temporarily" to the United States to "perform temporary services or labor" is whether the need of the petitioner for the duties to be performed is temporary. It is the nature of the need, not the nature of the duties, that is controlling. See 55 Fed. Reg. 2616 (1990).

As a general rule, the period of the petitioner's need must be a year or less, although there may be extraordinary circumstances where the temporary services or labor might last longer than one year. The petitioner's need for the services or labor must be a one-time occurrence, a seasonal need, a peakload need, or an intermittent need. 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(ii)(B).

The nontechnical description of the job on the Application for Alien Employment Certification (Form ETA 750) reads "sings folk and popular songs of Greece, Albania, Israel, Arabic, European and international languages....Will appear in one hour shows....Tuesday through Thursday and Sunday nights and two shows each of about one hour duration Saturday and Sunday nights."

It is clear that the petitioner will always need singers. Therefore, the petitioner has not established that its need for the occupation is temporary. In view of the foregoing, the petition may not be approved.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the previous decisions of the director and the Associate Commissioner will be affirmed.

ORDER: The order of March 7, 2000 dismissing the appeal is affirmed.
