INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a school system which seeks to employ the beneficiary as a bilingual kindergarten teacher for a period of ten months. The director determined the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary qualifies to perform services in a specialty occupation. The director's determination was based upon the petitioner's failure to submit an evaluation of the beneficiary's foreign education.

On appeal, the petitioner has provided an evaluation of the beneficiary's foreign education. This evaluation indicates that the beneficiary's foreign studies are equivalent to a United States baccalaureate degree in English and one and one-half years of graduate study. In view of the foregoing, it is concluded that the petitioner has overcome the stated grounds for denial. Nevertheless, the petition may not be approved.

Section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b), provides in part for nonimmigrant classification to qualified aliens who are coming temporarily to the United States to perform services in a specialty occupation. Section 214(i)(1) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(i)(1), defines a "specialty occupation" as an occupation that requires theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge, and attainment of a bachelor's or higher degree in the specific specialty (or its equivalent) as a minimum for entry into the occupation in the United States.

Pursuant to section 214(i)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(i)(2), to qualify as an alien coming to perform services in a specialty occupation the beneficiary must hold full state licensure to practice in the occupation, if such licensure is required to practice in the occupation. In addition, the beneficiary must have completed the degree required for the occupation, or have experience in the specialty equivalent to the completion of such degree and recognition of expertise in the specialty through progressively responsible positions relating to the specialty.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(B), the petitioner shall submit the following with an H-1B petition involving a specialty occupation:

1. A certification from the Secretary of Labor that the petitioner has filed a labor condition application with the Secretary,

2. A statement that it will comply with the terms of the labor condition application for the duration of the alien's authorized period of stay,
3. Evidence that the alien qualifies to perform services in the specialty occupation ...

The petitioner has not provided a certified labor condition application. Accordingly, it is concluded that the petition may not be approved.

The Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook, 2002-2003 edition, indicates that all states and the District of Columbia require public school teachers to be licensed. The record contains no evidence that the beneficiary is licensed to teach in New Jersey or that the beneficiary is permitted to teach without licensure or certification. However, inasmuch as the appeal will be dismissed on other grounds, this issue will not be pursued further at this time.

The Service notes its authority to affirm decisions, which though based on incorrect grounds, are deemed to be correct decisions on other grounds within the Service's power to formulate. Helvering v. Gowran, 302 U.S. 238 (1937); Securities Comm'n v. Chenery Corp., 318 U.S. 86 (1943); and Chae-Sik Lee v. Kennedy, 294 F. 2d 231 (D.C. Cir. 1961), cert denied, 368 U.S. 926.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the decision of the director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
