FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the director and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a medical office with eight employees and a stated gross annual income of $600,000, as listed on the initial Form I-129. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a manager-consultant for a period of two years. The director determined the petitioner had not established that the proffered position is a specialty occupation.

On appeal, counsel submits a statement. Counsel indicates that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted in support of the appeal on or before November 9, 2001. To date, no additional evidence has been received by this office. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states that an officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

On appeal, counsel objects to the Service's denial of the petition and indicates that the record contains sufficient evidence and explanation to grant the petition. However, counsel's statement standing alone cannot be considered as sufficient to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. As the petitioner has provided no additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v).

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proof remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. Here, that burden has not been met. In accordance with 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v), the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
