IN BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

PUBLIC COPY

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center. The record of proceeding has been forwarded to the Associate Commissioner for Examinations, and the decision of the director will be reviewed on certification. The decision of the director will be affirmed.

The petitioner is a software development and consulting services business with 12 employees and a gross annual income of $660,000. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a software engineer for a period of three years. The director determined the petitioner, as the beneficiary's agent, had not established that it had provided employment contracts including a complete itinerary of services to be performed by the beneficiary. The director also determined that, without such contracts, the Service was unable to determine whether the petitioner had complied with the terms of the labor condition application.

On notice of certification, counsel submits a brief.

Section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b), provides in part for nonimmigrant classification to qualified aliens who are coming temporarily to the United States to perform services in a specialty occupation. Section 214(i)(1) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(i)(1), defines a "specialty occupation" as an occupation that requires theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge, and attainment of a bachelor's or higher degree in the specific specialty (or its equivalent) as a minimum for entry into the occupation in the United States.

Pursuant to section 214(i)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(i)(2), to qualify as an alien coming to perform services in a specialty occupation the beneficiary must hold full state licensure to practice in the occupation, if such licensure is required to practice in the occupation. In addition, the beneficiary must have completed the degree required for the occupation, or have experience in the specialty equivalent to the completion of such degree and recognition of expertise in the specialty through progressively responsible positions relating to the specialty.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(2)(i)(F), Agents as petitioners, states:

A United States agent may file a petition in cases involving workers who are traditionally self-employed or workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers, and in cases where a foreign employer authorizes the agent to act on its behalf. A United States agent may be: the actual employer of the beneficiary, the representative of both the employer and the beneficiary, or, a person or entity authorized by the employer to act for, in place of, the employer as its agent. A petition filed by a United States agent is subject to the following conditions;

(1) An agent performing the function of an employer must guarantee the wages and other terms and conditions of employment by contractual agreement with the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the petition. The agent/employer must also provide an itinerary of definite employment and information on any other services planned for the period of time requested.

(2) A person or company in business as an agent may file the H petition involving multiple employers as the representative of both the employers and the beneficiary or beneficiaries if the supporting documentation includes a complete itinerary of services or engagements. The itinerary shall specify the dates of each service or engagement, the names and addresses of the actual employers, and the names and addresses of the establishment, venues, or locations where the services will be performed. In questionable cases, a contract between the employers and the beneficiary or beneficiaries may be required. The burden is on the agent to explain the terms and conditions of the employment and to provide any required documentation.

(3) A foreign employer, who, through a United States agent, files a petition for an H nonimmigrant alien is responsible for complying with all of the employer sanctions provisions of section 274A of the Act and 8 CFR part 274a.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(ii) states, in part, that:

United States employer means a person, firm, corporation, contractor, or other association, or organization in the United States which:

- (1) Engages a person to work within the United States;
- (2) Has an employer-employee relationship with respect to employees under this part, as indicated by the fact that it may hire, pay, fire, supervise, or otherwise control the work of any such employee; and
- (3) Has an Internal Revenue Service Tax identification number.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(2)(i)(B) states, in part, as follows:

A petition which requires services to be performed or training to be received in more than one location must include an itinerary with the dates and locations of the services or training . . .

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iv)(B) states, in part, that an H-1B petition involving a specialty occupation shall be accompanied by:

Copies of any written contracts between the petitioner and beneficiary, or a summary of the terms of the oral agreement under which the beneficiary will be employed, if there is no written contract.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(9)(i) states in part that the director shall consider all the evidence submitted and such other evidence as he or she may independently require to assist his or her adjudication. (Emphasis added.)

Further, in a Service memorandum entitled "Supporting Documentation for H-1B Petitions," dated November 13, 1995, it states as follows:

Requests for contracts should be made only in those cases where the officer can articulate a specific need for such documentation."

In his brief, counsel states, in part, as follows:

██████████ is a business entity. ██████████ is a U.S. employer. ██████████ has its own software development technologies and methodologies. Therefore, all new employee[s] must to be trained [sic] for these technologies and methodologies at the beginning of the employment with ██████████ not [sic] matter they will be working for in-house projects or will be assigned to client's site. Therefore, the beneficiary's initial work site should be ██████████ corporate office. ██████████ provided LCA for ██████████ corporate office is Immigration Law [sic] required for he will work at corporate office in the beginning of the employment with ██████████ In response to the Service's RFE, the Petitioner not only submitted contract to show the entire itinerary for the beneficiary's stay on his H-1B, [but] also provided new LCA for the client site.

The record contains, in part, the following:

* Software Suppliers Agreement dated August 30, 2000, between the petitioner and Avakai Information Networks;

* Software Suppliers Agreement dated January 22, 2001, between the petitioner and Time Trust Inc.;

* Software Suppliers Agreement dated August 9, 2000, between the petitioner and Tech Empower, Inc.

The record contains a summary of the terms of employment indicating that the petitioner has hired the beneficiary and will pay the beneficiary's salary. Even though counsel argues that such documentation demonstrates that the petitioner and beneficiary share an employer-employee relationship, as with employment agencies as petitioners, the Service must examine the ultimate employment of the alien, and determine whether the position qualifies as a specialty occupation. Cf. Defensor v. Meissner, 201 F.3d 384 (5th Cir. 2000). The critical element is not whether the petitioner is an employer or an agent, but whether the position actually requires the theoretical and practical application of a body of highly specialized knowledge, and the attainment of a bachelor's degree in the specific specialty as the minimum for entry into the occupation as required by the Act.¹ To interpret the regulations any other way would lead to absurd results: if the Service was limited to reviewing a petitioner's self-imposed employment requirements, then any alien with a bachelor's degree could be brought into the United States to perform a menial, non-professional, or an otherwise non-specialty occupation, so long as the employer required all such employees to have bachelor's degrees. See id. at 388.

In this case, the record contains a letter dated March 16, 2001, in which counsel states that the beneficiary will be assigned to the petitioner's client, Tech Empower, Inc., 141 Nevada St., Suite 200, El Segundo, CA 90245. The record, however, does not contain a project requisition/purchase order from Tech Employer, Inc. for the beneficiary, in accordance with the client agreement, nor does the record contain a comprehensive description of the beneficiary's proposed duties from an authorized representative of Tech Empower, Inc. Without such information, the petitioner has not demonstrated that the proffered position meets the statutory definition of specialty occupation. For this reason, the petition may not be approved.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(B), the petitioner shall submit the following with an H-1B petition involving a specialty occupation:

¹ The court in Defensor v. Meissner observed that the four criteria at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(A) present certain ambiguities when compared to the statutory definition, and "might also be read as merely an additional requirement that a position must meet, in addition to the statutory and regulatory definition." Supra at 387.

1. A certification from the Secretary of Labor that the petitioner has filed a labor condition application with the Secretary,
2. A statement that it will comply with the terms of the labor condition application for the duration of the alien's authorized period of stay,
3. Evidence that the alien qualifies to perform services in the specialty occupation . . .

The petitioner has provided two certified labor condition applications and a statement that it will comply with the terms of the labor condition applications. One of the labor condition applications lists the petitioner's address in Irvine. The other labor condition application, which lists the cities of Los Angeles, Orange, and Riverside, however, was certified on March 22, 2001, a date subsequent to December 6, 2000, the filing date of the visa petition. Regulations at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(i)(B)(1) provide that before filing a petition for H-1B classification in a specialty occupation, the petitioner shall obtain a certification from the Department of Labor that it has filed a labor condition application. For this additional reason, the petition may not be approved.

Also beyond the decision of the director, the record contains insufficient evidence to demonstrate that the beneficiary is qualified to perform the duties of the specialty occupation. The record does not contain an evaluation of the beneficiary's credentials from a service which specializes in evaluating foreign educational credentials as required by 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(4)(iii)(D)(3). As this matter will be affirmed, this issue need not be examined further.

ORDER: The decision of the director is affirmed.
