INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was approved by the Director, Texas Service Center, who certified the decision to the Associate Commissioner for Examinations for review. The decision of the director will be affirmed.

The petitioner seeks to employ the beneficiaries as golf caddies for four months. The Department of Labor determined that a temporary certification by the Secretary of Labor could not be made because the employment of these workers would have an adverse effect on wages and/or working conditions of U.S. workers similarly employed. Further, the employer's work schedule is considered to be a major factor in its inability to attract qualified available U.S. workers.

The director determined that sufficient countervailing evidence has been submitted to show that the employer's work schedule is a business necessity and the prevailing practice by similar employers in the area of intended employment, the employment policies of the Department of Labor have been observed and that the positions offered are temporary.

After review of the evidence contained in the record, the decision of the director is found to be correct.

ORDER: The decision of the director is affirmed. The nonimmigrant visa petition is approved.
