IN RE: Petitioner: [Redacted]
Beneficiary: [Redacted]

PETITION: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All materials have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The service center director denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be summarily dismissed. The petition will be denied.

The petitioner is a four-year Christian liberal arts college. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a resident director and to classify him as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on the ground that the record failed to establish that the proffered position qualifies as a specialty occupation.

On appeal counsel states as follows: "The denial is in error in that: (1) The employer has met the standards and documentation for specialty occupation; (2) The employer has fully documented that the degree requirement is normal for the occupation; (3) The employer normally requires a degree for the position." On the appeal form counsel indicated that she was not submitting any separate brief or evidence. No further supporting documentation has been submitted in support of the appeal.

As specified in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), "[a]n officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal." The petitioner has not specifically identified any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the decision. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. The petition is denied.
