FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Weimann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner directs a personal care program in collaboration with the Orange County Department of Social Services. It desires to employ the beneficiary as a personal assistant for a period of six months. The petition was not accompanied by the required Labor Certification, ETA-750. The director determined that absent the certification, the petitioner failed to meet the regulatory requirements necessary for approval of the petition.

On appeal, the petitioner states that it has not received a reply from the Labor department accepting or denying the labor certification authorization. The petitioner also states that it is resubmitting the application to the Department of Labor and requesting additional time to provide the required labor certification.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made.

The petition was filed on July 17, 2000 without a temporary labor certification, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. Absent such certification from the Department of Labor or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made, the petition cannot be approved.

On appeal, the petitioner requests additional time to provide the required certification. However, the statute does not provide for such consideration.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. Here, the petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
